The XXX International Archaeological Excavation Campaign will be held at the Vaccean necropolis Las Ruedas and will be coordinated and supported, once again, by the University of Valladolid's Federico Wattenberg Center for Vaccean Studies in Padilla de Duero. The intensive program is 150 teaching hours long based on the excavation of the rich archaeological site at the necropolis Las Ruedas, the workshops and numerous seminars.

Programmed activities

• Monday, July 8: at 11:30 a.m., pick-up at Adolfo Suárez Madrid-Barajas International Airport, in Terminal 1 meeting point, and transport to Padilla de Duero. Reception and accommodation at the Federico Wattenberg Center for Vaccean Studies Research facilities.

• Excavation and lab-workshop schedule

-Morning: 6:30 to 12:30 a.m.

-Afternoon: 17:30 to 20:30 p.m.

During these programmed hours fieldwork and/or lab-workshops will be offered alternatively. These schedules may vary due to weather conditions or other needs of the different services and programs of CEVFW.

• Historical excursions

-Monday, July 8: visit to hill Las Pinzas and necropolis Las Ruedas.

-Tuesday, July 9: guided visit to the different areas of the archaeological site and a tour along the Duero rivershore.

-Tuesday, July 16: guided natural trail to Natural Park Las Hoces del Duratón and to the ermita of San Frutos (Segovia); picnic lunch and canoeing.

-Tuesday, July 23: excursion to Valladolid and official campaign presentation (photo finish); in the evening, visit to Segovia and to La Granja de San Ildefonso.

• Breaks-leisure days

Monday, July 8, July 15 and July 29. Private transport will be offered, on these dates, to Peñafiel, a nearby town.
